Send us your photos

Britannia Heritage Shipyard Society (“BHSS”) wants to display your images. Here’s your chance to be part of our documentation team. If you have pictures of Britannia Heritage Shipyard, its buildings, its wildlife, its people or its projects or if you have pictures of life on BC’s coastal waters or of the area surrounding Britannia and Steveston you are invited to share them with us and with the world on our gallery.

Our normal procedure when we use submitted photos is to give the photographer a credit in this format: Photo: Jane Doe photo credit.

Legal information:

Your image will be examined by our team, who will decide on its suitability for publication. We cannot guarantee that your photo will be accepted nor can we guarantee to notify you whether your photo has been accepted for publication or declined.
